What they did in year 8 – ‘opting’ to do some subjects: this process is similar

- Continued with core subjects because they are compulsory
- Focused on subjects that interested them
- They were possibly subjects they were interested in doing at GCSE
- ALL of the subjects from year 8 are still available in year 9
- Opt to carry on with the subjects already chosen
- Might like a change and it is ok to pick something new

What is the English Baccalaureate? (Ebacc)

- EBacc is a measure to promote breadth of academic study. It is designed to ensure readiness for University.
- English, maths, science (2 or 3 GCSEs)
- French or German or Spanish PLUS
- History or Geography

WHY?

- Top universities appreciate students having core subjects and 'rigorous' subjects
- Over 70% of students here can access the top universities
- Our advice is to choose a language and a humanities subject

Questions

- What happens if my son/daughter makes a mistake in their choice?
- What about languages? Isn't it too much pressure for them?
- What they decide at 12/13 may affect their options at college and university?
- What about the subjects they only see once a week?
- Why are you not forcing them to do the EBACC?

The wrong reasons to pick a subject:

- Your friends are doing it
- Your parents think it's a good idea – but you don't
- You know someone who's done it and they say it's great
- You think it will be easy and won't have to work hard
- It sounds good even though you haven't found out about it
- A favourite teacher
