Roscoe House champions equality

Roscoe House champions equality. Our students chose this value as it reflected what they see as important. For a society to function fairly and for the benefit of all its citizens, everyone needs to have the same rights, opportunities and freedom of expression regardless of their race, religion, gender, beliefs, opinion, appearance, disability or socio-economic background. This is why we chose World Vision as our house charity. World Vision believes that by working together with children, their communities, and their supporters and partners, the lives of the world's most vulnerable children can be transformed.

William Roscoe
Roscoe House is proudly named after the inspiring Liverpool politician, William Roscoe (1753-1831). William Roscoe was an outstanding example of a self-made scholar and polymath. He was a writer and poet, historian, banker and lawyer and it was with great determination and courage that he put his knowledge to good use. Alongside his like-minded peers, he played a significant part in abolishing the slave trade, on which the prosperity of Liverpool was based. He was a voice for the voiceless who was not afraid to stand up for what he believed in.

Our equality

"Treat people the same."
